PGA National Golf Club

Since the opening of the National on 18 November 1994, the Club has become a popular destination attracting golfers from all corners of the world and in no time it won the international recognition. This is a truly magnificent course, which is routed thoughtfully across gently rolling terrain and through mature pine and eucalyptus trees. The snow-capped Taurus Mountains provide a provocative backdrop especially as the course is bathed in warm sunshine for the vast majority of the year.

Antalya Golf Club

The PGA Sultan and The Pasha Course

Both of the courses were designed by leading architects European Golf Design, together with design consultant and Senior Tour Professional David Jones. The courses provide a challenge for players ranging anywhere from the modest beginner to the games elite. With stunning views, surroundings and top quality playing surfaces combined with all year long perfect weather. Antalya Golf Club is sure to deliver an unforgettable golfing experience. The Sultan beckons the heartiest of golfers to take par 72, 6477 metres challenge. European Golf Design and David Jones spared nothing to maintain to competitive level of the course, while at same time blending it seamlessly into the forest environment.
